ABOUT ME

Muhammad Awais Shah I'm a dedicated student who has recently completed my FSc in Computer Science.I have gained practical skills in web development, including HTML5, CSS3, Javascript, React.js, Bootstrap, and Material UI. I also hold a Web Development Certificate that has strengthened my foundation in creating responsive website. Currently, I am learning Express.js and MongoDB to enhance my full -stack development skills. Additionally, I completed a 1 year internship at Saylani Mass IT Training, where I worked on developing web applications and learned about industry-standard tools and practices. I am excited to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science to further expand my knowledge in areas like AI, data science, and software engineering, and I believe that a scholarship will provide the opportunity to fully dedicate myself to my education and career goals.
